

The Report of the Anti-Racism and Equity Committee
Presbytery of Southern New England
September 10, 2020

For Presbytery Information:

The Anti-Racism and Equity Committee is off to a wonderful start. The committee members, Robert Baker, Jenny Davis, Jan Hawkins, Kirk Louis, Jenny Peek, Keith Rhoden, Katia Regina, Susan Trucksess, David Van Dyke and Kevin White have now met with Jessica Vasquez-Torres, the National Program Director of Crossroads Antiracism Organizing & Training, for 12 hours of training.

Starting in September, the committee will now meet for 12 monthly coaching sessions with Jessica Vasquez-Torres. During our time together we will discern how best we can live in to our mandate and support the Presbytery in its work. The mandate given to the committee is: To work towards the creation of an inclusive, equitable, antiracist culture within the PSNE that will be attractive to all people in particular those who have been systematically excluded from full participation in the presbytery, as we seek to be co-creators with Christ of a just, peaceful and healed world/creation.
